OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Wednesday - 3 May 1967

STAT

1. [REDACTED] Spoke further with William Woodyear, Department of State, concerning the status of the Vietnam War Amendments (S. 1029). Apparently they will again be reported out but without the increase in the maximum post differential rate. (See Memorandum for the Record.)

STAT

2. [REDACTED] Peter Riddleberger, Staff Member, Senate Foreign Relations Committee, called to determine if any organization other than NSA had been officially identified as a recipient of Agency funds. Mr. Riddleberger said he would be able to satisfactorily respond to incoming inquiries on the basis of certain language which I gave to him from the Katzenbach Committee report.

STAT

3. [REDACTED] Frank Tsutras, Administrative Assistant to Congressman James W. Kee (D., W. Va.), called to indicate the Congressman's interest in the application of [REDACTED] Mr. Tsutras asked STAT that I drop by when I have a chance to visit with him and the Congressman.

4. [REDACTED] Mrs. Molly Saguto, appointment secretary, called for Congressman Samuel S. Stratton (D., N. Y.) on behalf of Mr.

[REDACTED] New York.
An employment interview was scheduled with [REDACTED] at 9:30 a.m., 4 May.

5. [REDACTED] The Director, accompanied by Messrs. Morell, Allen and John S. Warner, appeared before the House Banking and Currency Committee in executive session to discuss the Fiat deal. A transcript was taken with only two copies to be reproduced; therefore, no memorandum of the meeting will be made. The Director read a brief prepared statement and then responded to questions. Out of the 33 members, 30 were present. It seemed that the briefing went very well.

STAT

6. [REDACTED] Charles Kirbow, Senate Armed Services Committee staff, asked if we would see one [REDACTED] who was present in his office attempting to find a way to reach the Agency. [REDACTED] did see [REDACTED] for fifteen minutes and since [REDACTED] stated he had been guided to the Agency by a beam and other irrational statements, [REDACTED] put him in the nut class. Mr. Kirbow was so informed and apologized for bothering us with it.
